

Effective Winter Roadway Maintenance Workshop: Saving Time, Budget and Our Waters

Sponsored by Madison Area Municipal Stormwater Partnership,
Madison Metropolitan Sewerage District, and Madison Water Utility

Topics

- Application Rates of Materials
- How to Calibrate Equipment
- Weather Conditions
- Storing Materials
- Environmental Effects
- Pre-Wetting
- De-Icing
- Anti-Icing

✓ Application Rates
✓ Cost-Saving Tips
✓ Innovative Practices

Why is this Important?

- Save Money
- Keep Roadways Safe
- Protect Our Waters

Who Should Attend?

- Street/Highway Dept. Supervisors
- Snowplow Drivers
- Private Contractors Maintaining Roadways
- Municipal Officials
- Staff Hiring Winter Maintenance Professionals

Workshop Details

- Within MAMSWaP boundaries: $21 fee before 10/2; $31 after
- Outside MAMSWaP boundaries: $41 before 10/2; $51 after
- Cost includes lunch, training, and materials
- Not sure if you live within MAMSWaP boundaries? Go to <http://myfairlakes.com/mamswap.aspx> or call 608-224-3764

The workshop will be taught by Connie Fortin of Fortin Consulting and Chris Walsh, City of Beloit Director of Operations. Chris will share information on how the City of Beloit saved money and reduced their environmental impact by successfully implementing some of the practices covered in this workshop.

October 14th, 8 AM - 1 PM
Lussier Family Heritage Center
3101 Lake Farm Rd., Madison, WI 53711

REGISTRATION - Complete form, mail with check payable to Dane County Treasurer to:
ATTN.: MAMSWaP Salt Workshop, 5201 Fen Oak Dr, Room 208, Madison, WI 53718 or register on-line at:
<http://www.eventbrite.com/e/roadway-winter-maintenance-workshop-tickets-18248315202>

Organization/Municipality _____

Number of Attendees _____

Contact Person _____

Contact Email/Phone _____

Total Amount Enclosed _____

October 14th, 2015 Roadway Winter Maintenance Workshop